This Labour Weekend's Trust Aoraki Aviemore Classic promises exciting fresh-water racing and family fun and entertainment.

Around 80 yachts will compete over two days of events at New Zealand's biggest trailer yacht event, now in its 28th year, which is held on Lake Aviemore between Kurow and Otematata.

The best spots for members of the public to watch the events are either at the top of the Lake, near Parson's Rock or around the Aviemore Dam area.

On Saturday spectators will be treated to the championship races as well as the Fun Race, scheduled to begin at 1.30 pm. The competitive races include the Aviemore Trailer Yacht Champs, including the Noalex 25 and 22's South Island Champs.

On Sunday the main event – Trust Aoraki Aviemore Classic – will require competitors to complete two full circuits of the Lake and lasts all day.

Yachts from all around the South Island and crews from the North Island will compete.

“Every year sizable crowds gather to watch the wind fill the yachts’ sails to propel them around the lake to the finish line. It’s a really fun filled two days and there is always a sense of anticipation from all who take part about what might happen on the water on the day, who will win, who will fall in and the social activities after the races”.

Laurence Smith, event organiser, says it is a result of months of planning and an excellent small committee of helpers to make the event a success.

Trust Aoraki have been heavily involved in providing grants for the event and with other sponsors from around the South Island and a large input from all our generous sponsors this year have made this event possible.
